A personal opinion

- Stand on the shoulder of giants ...then step off and find your own path
- Science is governed by fashions ...I have data to back this up
- Mobility can accelerate a career ...if there is not enough budget, the quality of your work doesn't matter

In a fast-moving world, performance is increasingly measured by superficial and easily consumable indicators. Academic research does not escape this trend. The very short book two bestsellers by internationally renowned professor Marco Aiello offers an accessible and humoristic overview of the situation with two clear goals. The first is to describe the trend with exemplar cases, while accompanying them with useful tips. The second is unveiled at the end of the book.
